

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF VIRGINIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA:

V. Case No. 19-57

YOUNG YOO :

NOTICE

YOUNG YOO, by and through counsel, hereby files this notice as we approach our status hearing on January 5, 2022. There are a few updates for the record.

Mr. Yoo was in quarantine for a period, and we were unable to consult with him. We have regularly scheduled weekly visitation but were unable to see him on November 16, 23 and 30th due to Covid/quarantine issues.

Yoo was then the victim of an unlawful wounding at the jail and was taken to the hospital, etc. followed by Covid protocols. We were thus unable to consult with him on December 7th and 14th. We have been able to see him the last two weeks (December 21 and December 28).

The government filed a notice regarding discovery issues. There are 6000 documents still to be produced on a “rolling” basis and then some additional discovery from Fairfax Police. The additional discovery may not be produced by January 7. The exact amount of discovery encompassed within the government’s notice is still not clear.

Finally, the current state of the massive upcoming discovery disclosure (Jencks Giglio and interview reports) is that counsel should have possession of those materials on January 7, 2022 (assuming we can have copies of the materials outside of the courthouse). We then must get to the jail to review the information with Mr. Yoo. We do not yet know the quantity of this Jencks/Giglio material.
